

Attachment 2b

(Amended 2/28/2013)

Expanded Service Area Description

Marin County in its entirety.

Contra Costa County in its entirety.

Solano County in its entirety.

Sonoma County: Beginning from Sonoma County's most southern point on San Pablo Bay, northwest along the county line to Tomales Road, southeast to Pepper Road, northeast to Mecham Road, northeast to Stony Point Road, northeast to Hwy. 116, north to Martinelli Road, north to River Road, west to Westside Road, northeast to W. Dry Creek Road, north to Lambert Bridge Road, east to Dry Creek Road, south to Lytton Springs Road, east to Lytton Station Road, south to Alexander Valley Road, east to the Russian River, south to Macama Creek, east to Chalk Hill Road, south to Faught Road, southeast to Old Redwood Highway, southeast to Mark West Springs Road, east to Cross Creek Road, south to Riebli Road, southeast to Wallace Road, south to Badger Road, east to Calistoga Road, north to St. Helena Road, east to the Sonoma County line, south along the county line to the point of beginning.

Napa County: Beginning from Napa County's most southern point, northwest along the county line to Sonoma County line, north to Spring Mountain Road, southeast to York Creek, northeast to Napa River, southeast to Pratt Avenue, northeast to Silverado Trail, Southeast to Hwy. 128 East, southeast to the Solano County line, south along the Napa County line to the point of beginning.